

Worn in. Not worn out.

Day 100.
1.2 million steps. Still going.

Tested on the people who never sit down.

A shoe everyone knew. Fewer people bought.

Net revenue, from Allbirds' public annual reports. Store closures and a smaller line followed.

Famous with people who sit all day.

~~"the Silicon Valley uniform"~~

~~"comfy, but they wear through"~~

~~"a desk shoe"~~

~~"I switched to On / Hoka"~~

Meanwhile, performance brands took the comfort conversation to people on their feet.

Nobody buys shoes to save the planet.
They buy them to survive a Tuesday.

Comfort under pressure is the universal need. Sustainability becomes the proof, not the pitch.

The 100-Day Shift.

100 people who never sit down wear Allbirds for 100 shifts. Every step is counted. Their worn pairs become the campaign.

Scuffs are the ad.

Shift 100
Maya, night nurse, Chicago

1,420,000
steps logged

CARBON RECEIPT
Footprint	on every box
Wear, so far	100 shifts
Next life	ReRun resale

From a scuff to a second pair.

AWARENESS

See it

Subway and Tube OOH near hospitals and kitchens · 15-second "shift" films on CTV and YouTube · creators on NurseTok and ChefTok.

CONSIDERATION

Believe it

UGC ads with real step counts · search for "shoes for nurses" · a comparison page that answers "do they last?".

CONVERSION

Try it

The Shift Pack bundle · 30-day wear trial front and centre · retargeting with the owner's own step count.

LOYALTY

Keep it

Lifecycle email and SMS · Worn In log · ReRun trade-in credit at 6 months.

What winning looks like.

+20%

new-customer revenue
vs same period last year

-15%

blended CAC creator ads beat studio ads

24%

90-day repeat rate
from an 18% baseline

3.0× blended ROAS

paid social + search

Akshara Singh

Brand strategy, campaign, full-funnel plan, CRM, creative ·

Akshara.singh.marketing@gmail.com

Unsolicited spec work for a portfolio. Not affiliated with or endorsed by Allbirds, Inc. Targets and baselines are illustrative proposals.